

While I believe in our free enterprise system, I do not believe it is in the interests of our democracy to have ownership of various media in such few hands. I believe the airways are public and it is in the PUBLIC's interest that they not be controlled by just a few big giants. I would like to see more discussion on this. Thank you for allowing me to comment.